The news of the marriage of Ernest Morrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morrill, has been received here by the aunt of the groom, Mrs. Nettie Rix. The marriage took place at Springfield, Mass., at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of Feb. 8, and the bride was Miss Margaret M. Wallace. The ceremony was performed at the rectory of the Sacred Heart church by Rev. Michael C. Carey. The bride was given in marriage by her father, John Wallace, of Claremont, N. H., and she was attended by Mary Brown of Armory street, and the bridesmaid by Michael Brennan. The couple at once left for a short wedding trip, and on their return will reside in Springfield. Mr. Morrill is a mail clerk with headquarters in that city, and he and his parents are well known in town.

The class of young men, the Character Builders, of the Methodist church held a valentine social at the vestry on Tuesday evening, to which they invited the young ladies' class, known as the Doors of the Word. A jolly party gathered and the evening was passed very pleasantly.

No More Gas in Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in the stomach and bowels, take Baalman's Gas-Tablets.

Baalman's Gas-Tablets are prepared distinctly and especially for stomach gas, and particularly for all the bad effects coming from gas pressure.

That empty, gone and gnawing feeling at the pit of your stomach will disappear; that anxious and nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will once more be able to take a deep breath, so often prevented by gas pressure against your heart and lungs.

Your limbs, arms and fingers won't feel cold and go to sleep, because Baalman's Gas-Tablets prevent gas interfering with the circulation; intense drowsiness and sleepy feeling after dinner will soon be replaced by a desire for some form of entertainment. Your distended stomach will reduce by inches because gas will not form after using Baalman's Gas-Tablets.

"I cannot thank you enough for your great kindness. Since taking Baalman's Gas-Tablets I am feeling so well that I give you a short report of my improvement. My stomach and bowels feel so comfortable; the bloating is all gone; I can now take a deep breath. That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach is gone; no more feeling of fullness after eating. I rest well at night, in fact my stomach feels much improved in every way. Baalman's Gas-Tablets are just wonderful, and I can't say enough in their favor. Many thanks; may God bless you in your good work."—Rev. J. L. Sherris, Benton Harbor, Mich., March 23, 1921.

Baalman's Gas-Tablets in the yellow package can be had from any leading druggist. Price, one dollar. J. Baalman, chemist, San Francisco—adv.

CHELSEA

The Late Charles L. Hood Was Devoted Son of the Town.

In the death of Charles L. Hood, late of Lowell, Mass., this, his native town, mourns for one of its most renowned and loyal sons. Mr. Hood was born in Chelsea December 11, 1845, and was the youngest son of Amos R. Hood, who was a successful druggist in this town from 1830 until his death in 1881. He received his early education in the public schools here and commenced his business career as a clerk in his father's store where he gained a general knowledge of the business. In 1861, at fifteen years of age, he went to Lowell, Mass., where he obtained a position as druggist clerk with Dr. Samuel Kidder, which position he held until 1866, when he went to Boston and there accepted a position as prescription clerk with the firm of Dr. J. C. Metcalf & Co., which position he held until 1870, when he returned to Lowell and entered into business for himself under the firm name of C. L. Hood & Co. Five years later he commenced compounding and manufacturing and placed upon the market "Hood's Sarsaparilla" which made his name famous and a household word among all nations of the civilized world. In order to meet the demand for this popular proprietary medicine he found it necessary in the early 80's to build one of the largest laboratories in the world, at that time for its manufacture together with other well known medicines compounded by him. Experiencing the realization of his hope and ambition, and cognizant of the fact that his immense drug and proprietary medicine enterprise had become a realistic, permanent and successful business, he decided to withdraw his personal attention sufficiently to enable him to devote a part of his time and attention to farming and stock raising, and having acquired a large farm well adapted to his new project he stocked it with the very best producing Jersey stock, and his fine herds of cattle could be obtained. To this enterprise he gave that same careful, faithful and scientific attention which he had devoted to his drug and medicine business until he became known as one of the leading and most noted breeders of Jersey cattle and Berkshire hogs in New England, and it was in the United States, and his annual sales became events of national interest and importance among stock raisers.

While he had not been in robust health for the past few years, his last illness was of short duration. He survived by his widow, who was Miss Adeline Wilder of Lowell, and one brother, the venerable William F. Hood of this town, who on the death of his father in 1881 succeeded to the drug business conducted by his father and who carried on the same with marked success until he retired from active business a few years ago.

Among the greatest assets during the long and successful business career of the subject of this sketch was his pleasing personality and natural ability to meet people of all classes and walks in life with that genial, good-natured, hearty, and unassuming, and retains lasting friendships, and though always deservedly popular he never sought nor accepted public office. He always retained in his heart a warm spot for his native town and every movement looking toward social or municipal improvement in town felt the pulsation of his personal interest in earnest word and liberal contribution. He was a Mason, a member of Boston chamber of commerce, the American Pharmaceutical association, Proprietary Association of America, National Wholesale Druggists' association, American Jersey Cattle club and American Berkshire association.

His name will long be remembered and cherished by the people of his native town, and looked upon as a loyal and devoted son whose influence and name are worthy of emulation and should be a great incentive and inspiration for those whose opportunities are yet to come.

Miss Ruth Doyle is working at the Park View, taking the place of Miss Ruth Morey, who recently completed her services there.

Misses Amber Cole and Zilla Cole, Marion Campbell and Nita Durkee, who are teaching in other towns, were guests at the home of their parents over a recent week end.

Attorney Lyle R. Beckwith has been appointed the member from Orange County on the membership committee of the Vermont Bar association.

Julien C. Hood went to Lowell, Mass., last week to attend the funeral of his uncle, Charles L. Hood.

Charles F. O'Neill of Lowell, Mass., was in town recently looking after the interests of the Orange County Bohemian corporation and was accompanied by his son, Peter.

Sheriff George A. Tracy has appointed Oliver E. Burgess of this town, for several years constable here, a deputy sheriff and the latter has qualified.

Thomas G. Dearborn, deputy sheriff from Randolph, was in town on business last Friday.

Dr. Clarence H. Burr of Montpelier, district health officer for this district, was in town last Friday on a visit of inspection and found two cases of scarlet fever among the pupils in the village for two weeks, which action was taken with the hope that a general outbreak of the disease may be averted. And as a further precaution, Dr. Burr recommended that the parents of all children who are now or have recently been sick with any of the symptoms which are found with this disease keep their children at home during the two weeks' recess of the school, and he further ordered that at all public gatherings during the next two weeks all children under sixteen years of age be not allowed to attend.

Card of Thanks.
I wish to express my sincere thanks to my neighbors, relatives and friends for cutting, sawing and storing in my shed and barn two or three years' supply of wood. I also wish to thank Leon L. Sauer for the wood as it was cut on his farm.

WATERBURY

Family Reunion Marked Birthday Anniversary of M. V. B. Hayden.

Sunday, Martin V. B. Hayden of Duxbury passed his eighty-first birthday at his home in Duxbury. Twenty-nine members of his family, including all his children and part of their families, were present. There were also five grandchildren present out of the eight, and seven great-grandchildren, also a nephew and niece and family.

Anyone who has been at the Hayden home knows that abundant viands, family gatherings and all that goes to make many anniversaries memorable hours. Their fifty-first anniversary was one often remembered by those fortunate enough to attend.

Mr. Hayden owns the land upon which his grandfather built the first house, when he settled in Duxbury. Mr. Hayden was born on Hayden hill, the son of Alonzo and Sarah (Cobb) Hayden. Fifty-six years ago he married Miss Melissa Preston and they went to reside in Boston, where they remained until 24 years ago, when they came back to Duxbury to Mrs. Hayden's old home. Mr. Hayden feels very proud of the fact that during 56 years of married life and that of carrying on his own farm, he has always been able to attend to the chores at the barn, going there half a dozen times a day. They are very fortunate in having with them a nephew, who assumes the burden of the farm work and they are able to remain at their home, surrounded by family, friends and flowers. Mrs. Hayden having one of the choicest of old-fashioned gardens, in which she takes especial summer delight. It will not be long before the first flowers will sprout through and from then on the garden will have the flowers of the season.

Most of Mr. Hayden's family live near, in Bolton, Waterbury and Duxbury, the only ones from a distance being his granddaughters, her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McCloud and daughter, Jessie, of Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden are characteristic of old New England stock, careful and saving. Mrs. Hayden being a constant helpmeet to her husband. They now look forward to comfort and congratulate themselves in their achievement.

Community Club Team Won from the Norwich All-Stars, 22 to 20.

The game Saturday night which the Community club team put up against the Norwich All-Stars was close from the start. The game was a nip and tuck affair all through, with Waterbury generally slightly in the lead. At the end of the first half, the score stood 14 to 10 in Waterbury's favor, and this had the four points lead which the team kept most of the game, the final score being 22 to 20. Both teams played brilliant ball, the playing of Comi and John Donnelly of the visiting team being particularly spectacular at times, as was that of Randall, Metcalf and Clavel of the local club. The summary:

W. C. C.	G. F. P.
Robinson, R.	0 0 0
Randall, C.	3 0 0

Total	9 2 20

The girls' basketball team of the high school beat the visiting team, Spaulding high, Friday evening in a score of 16 to 15.

Sunday evening was young people's night at the Congregational church, the service being entirely in charge of the young folks, Elbridge Miller, Jr., leading. The responsive reading was by Miss Esther Stanley; the scripture reading by Lawrence Sherry; prayer by Mr. Miller; violin solo, Earle Graves; a boys' chorus and girls' chorus, under the leadership of Mrs. Walter, Rev. John C. Prince. Earle Graves also carried the first verse in solo work in the boys' chorus. The work of the young people was much appreciated.

Bert O'Brien is moving from the farm on the Cooley road to the J. E. Pixley farm.

Mrs. Edwin Cooley and daughter, Blanche, of St. Albans, were week-end guests of Mrs. Cooley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pixley.

Miss Sarah Graves is spending a week at her old home on the farm.

STOWE

Harry Lyman Alleged Guilty to Two Allegations.

At a hearing before Justice C. W. Watts Saturday, Harry Lyman pleaded guilty to a charge of gambling and was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs. He also pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping with intent to sell. Sentence was withheld.

Fred J. Holden, repair man on the Mt. Mansfield electric road, was cut on one eyelid Monday while working at a derrick. The dog slipped, letting the handle fly, striking Mr. Holden over the eye. First aid was given by a physician at Waterbury and Mr. Holden returned home in the afternoon. The injury is not considered serious.

Fred J. Billings left Monday for Stanford, N. Y., where he was called by the death of Avery C. Vandye, whose daughter is the wife of Mr. Billings. Mr. Vandye has visited Stowe several times. The cause of his death was influenza, four of the family being ill with the disease. He died on Monday. He leaves his wife and daughter and two grandchildren, the children of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hayward. The funeral will be held Wednesday.

Twenty-six head of cattle were shipped Saturday by Messrs. Bill, Latuch and Beauchemin, committee for the Co-operative Shipping association. The stock was shipped by team to Waterbury.

Mrs. M. C. Grandy has returned to Burlington, after passing carnival week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pike.

The funeral of Mrs. Preston Carter was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hayward officiating. The burial was made in the River Bank cemetery. Friends present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Gonyea and daughter, Ruth, of East Charlotte, Thomas Gonyea and Fred Gonyea of Rutland, Charles Harpan of Montpelier, Edward McGrath and daughter, Gladys, of Putnamville, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacPherson and daughter, Phyllis, of Shelburne and Eli Carter of Morrisville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shephard passed the week end with Mrs. Shephard's sister, Mrs. Charles Hamel, in Waterbury. Mr. Shephard made the trip on Snowshoes.

Miss Daisy Bailey, who has completed her work at the Heaton hospital, returned home Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Fuller is at home, the schools in Chelsea, where she is teaching, being closed on account of scarlet fever.

CABOT

High School Loses Two Games, Once to Greensboro.

The high school boys put up a good game against Greensboro last Friday night, but were defeated by a score of 11 to 11. The visitors were inclined to play football and one player was ruled out on fouls in the first ten minutes of play. A town team man took his place for the rest of the game. This man, Willey, who has a reputation of being one of the best men in the county, made eighteen of their 24 points. The score:

The girls played their initial game against Danville. It was a very interesting encounter, with the score nearly a tie, until the last period, when Danville succeeded in winning by a score of 12 to 5. McCarty was the mainstay of the Cabot offense, caging the ball once from the floor and dropping it through the hoop three times. On the whole, the girls played excellent basketball, except for passing, which will improve with practice. The score:

Stomach Upset?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

The Importance of Healthy Kidneys

In the removal of waste material from the body, the kidneys are called upon to perform a very important duty. The failure of these marvelous and delicately constructed organs to properly do their work means ruin in the system of poisonous matter. This poisons the system, and if permitted to remain results in severe backache, headache, torpid liver, constipation and eventually Bright's disease. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, a combination of herbs, and other healthful ingredients, was discovered about fifty years ago, and its value in strengthening the kidneys and liver was at once appreciated. Today it stands as one of the standard remedies in the treatment of diseases of the kidneys and liver. Many persons suffer from diseases of the kidneys unknowingly. The use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy will invariably improve your health, and make you feel that life is really worth the living.
